

ASIAN JOURNAL OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

THE ASIAN JOURNAL
OF
PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Recent Articles

Volume 7 Number 1 June 1985

Teachers and the Rural Responsibility System in the People's Republic of China
Hubert O. Brown

The Context of Curriculum Development in Hong Kong:
An Analysis of the Problems and Possibilities
Paul Morris

Sociological Characteristics, Personnel Practices and Development-Orientedness of Thai Civil Servants:
An Empirical Test
Tin Prachyapruit

Bureaucracy and Development in Singapore
Thomas J. Bellows

The Theory and Applicability of Democratic
Elitism to Korean Public Administration
Bun Woong Kim and David S. Bell, Jr.

Control in the Organization:
Sinew or Bindweed?
Terry Casey

Research Notes: Differentiation and Coordination in Hong Kong's District Management Committees
Rowena Y.F. Kwok

Volume 7 Number 2 December 1985

Special Issue : China's Special Economic Zone
(Guest Editor : Chung-Tong Wu)

China's Special Economic Zones: Five Years After
An Introduction
Chung-Tong Wu

The Political Economy of China's SEZs
Victor C. Falkenheim

Financing Shenzhen's Economic Development:
A Preliminary Analysis of Sources of Capital Construction Investments 1979-1984
Thomas M.H. Chan

The Origins and Performance of China's Special Economic Zones
Kung Kai-sing, James

Forsaking the Iron Rice Bowl:
Employment and Wages in China's Special Economic Zones
Chung-Tong Wu and David F. Ip

Materials Published in China on the Special Economic Zones

Typesetting: Centre for Media Resources, H.K.U.